The Comedy About a Bank Robbery Review by Maddie Maxwell

On Thursday the 28th February, year 10 and 11 GCSE Drama students traveled to Cambridge to watch a play titled "The Comedy About a Bank Robbery". In my opinion the long journey was definitely worth it.

This comedic plays main story revolves around a bank robbery which goes wrong (as you can tell by the title). It's packed with slapstick comedy, musical songs and lots of gag worthy jokes. I loved the set design (the favourite part of the show in my opinion) as you could tell the huge amount of effort put into the costumes, set design and props.

Overall Wymondham College Drama students were laughing throughout the whole play, as were Mrs Bryce and Mrs Foreman. I recommend the play to everyone who reads this.

New Sunday Brunch Menu

The College are always trying to improve the boarding experience and Sunday Brunch is a new addition to the weekend routine. Regular breakfast is still available in house but for those who want a slightly longer lie in on their only day off we now have brunch. This is an English breakfast style meal which follows on from Chapel. The students have really enjoyed this change and as a result we will be continuing with it.

Year 11 Evening Out

As a small treat for the Year 11s, Mr Collishaw invited them out for a meal at Cosmos in Norwich. Cosmos is an all you can eat world buffet so as you can imagine, lots of food was consumed that night.
