peel weekly

edition #113 | February 2019

"This week, Ms Cook held a crafting service for people who wanted to design cards and other things for Valentine's day as it is approaching. It was a perfect time for socialising as well. Also, the non uniform day is on Valentines day this week, which is a lovely coincidence. I just think that Ms Cook's 'crafternoons' are a great time for the residents of the house to relax and talk on a Sunday."
Finyin, Y7.

Some of Ms Cook's Peel Craft-ernoons student works on display.

Everyone is suffering from the dreaded lurgy cold at the moment. Can we please, please, please encourage everyone to wash their hands regularly, not cough out loud, and use hand sanitiser if you have it. We've had lots of absences this week, and we don't want many more! Day students, if you are ill please call the College Office to report absences.

Imogen competed in the District Rotary Young Chef Competition on Saturday. Immy was runner-up, but still goes through to the next stage, the Regional Final being held on March 9th in Colchester. The National final is being held in April, so fingers crossed! #masterchef

The PSA are running their annual Chilli and Quiz night on Friday 1st March, just after we come back from half term. Always a good night, it's open for teams of up to 8 adults. We've attached the ticket booking form with this issue of Weekly so you can get involved. Hopefully a Peel-linked team can win!

Tickets cost £10 per head, and the night starts at 7:30pm. Please see the poster for more details.

Our new skirt will be worn by all students choosing a skirt from September 2019. The skirt was chosen by the students and is available now at Birds of Dereham.

The skirt costs from £21 and should be bought to sit on the knee. Those families in receipt of Pupil Premium can use their allowance to purchase uniform from Birds - they will need to contact Mrs Becky Arnold (arnoldbe.staff@wymondhamcollege.org) in the first instance.

Silver surfers in the plenty this week, with Jemima, Tom B and Hannah B all earning Silver awards this week. Super duper work.

Not to be outdone, but Lucie, Chloe L, Anya P, Mason, Ella S and Ross all earned their Bronze awards too. How many more might we get by the mid-way point of the year this coming Friday?
