

Massive praise this week needs to go to Ola (Year 11) who helped the First XI football team win the County Cup Final on Thursday night, and in the process earn his first team colours and tie, an honour usually reserved for Sixth formers. House captain and all around winner!

Our new skirt will be worn by all students choosing a skirt from September 2019. The skirt was chosen by the students and is available now at Birds of Dereham.

The skirt costs from £21 and should be bought to sit on the knee. Those families in receipt of Pupil Premium can use their allowance to purchase uniform from Birds – they will need to contact Mrs Becky Arnold (arnoldbe.staff@wymondhamcollege.org) in the first instance.

We had some new art prints commissioned for the house recently.

Mr McMorran did assembly on Friday, with a mystery story linking back to World Book Day last week. He has challenged Peel students to finish the 'Scrabble' story in 100 words, and using the following letters as the mystery final Scrabble word - BAQWEUK. Entries to the Peel office on Monday morning please!

In the spirit of books, reading and writing, this week we are also featuring a long piece of creative writing done by a Peel student, judged to be very good by the English department. Enjoy!

"Tonight is the worst of all nights spent in my new flat. I particularly picked this flat as it is the only one with a nice view of the lake and has some great long walks I can enjoy. However, when I signed the agreement, they didn't tell me there was a new bar and club in the building behind. Drunk hooligans are yelling, smashing glass beer bottles everywhere. I cannot sleep. I cannot think, there is too much going on. I almost knew something was going to happen or something needs to happen. I have a sense of foreboding, looming in the shadows. I reminisce on my day whilst trying to sleep, I had a nice lunch on a park bench but had to remove an abandoned, silver plated knife with bold initials EMA engraved on the polished, wooden handle. Quickly I rushed and placed it carefully in the bin beside me.

As the early morning sun starts to rise, like a new born chick hatching and taking its first steps, the dead mist hangs over the sleepy lake. Forgetting last night, I take a stroll, like I do most mornings.

A waft of wind strokes my face waking up all of my senses. That's when suddenly I notice something bobbing up and down, up and down, in the water. At first, I just think it is a large log being carried by the wind. As I get closer my eyes are struck, fixated on a corpse! I rapidly punch myself hoping I could wake up to this horrible nightmare. Nothing. The body makes its way towards me and in the growing, early morning light I can see a face, pale as snow. Bloodshot eyes and cracked, cold blue lips. What should I do? Remembering last night, I wonder could someone from the club have fallen in the lake because they were drunk?" - by Evie M (Year 8); Creative Writing in English

Right, where to start! It's been quite a week for points scoring and award winning! Gold award this week to Alexander (Year 8) - very impressive!

Silver awards to Rocio (Year 7) - brilliant!

Bronze awards to Ollie B and Mia (Year 11), Cristina and Henri (Year 9), Yasmin, Luis and Seren (Year 8), and Theo, Alisha, Alfie and Rory (Year 7). Congratulations to all of you too. Phew, don't try saying that all at once!
